

FIRM NEWS

NEMETH LAW ATTORNEYS DISCUSS TIMELY EMPLOYMENT ISSUES

Detroit, Michigan
June 25, 2015

Attorneys with Detroit-based management side labor and employment law firm Nemeth Law, P.C., have made several presentations during the second quarter of 2015. The discussions covered a variety of employment law topics:

- Partner Terry Bonnette presented Managing Religion in Long-Term Care on May 6 at the Healthcare Association of Michigan (HCAM)/Michigan Center for Assisted Living (MCAL) conference in Marquette, Mich.
- Patricia Nemeth, founder of Nemeth Law P.C., and partner Susan Koval presented Litigating the Pregnancy Discrimination Claim to a large industry trade group on May 13 in Cleveland, Ohio.
- At the Nemeth Law Raising the Bar series on May 20, Terry Bonnette and attorney Erin Behler presented Employee Leave Policies that Work, highlighting new interpretations of the FMLA, PDA, ADA and other employment leave-related policies and practices.

In addition, Nemeth Law's video series covering timely topics in employment law, such as employment classifications challenges in the gig economy and non-compete agreements for minimum wage workers, continues. Videos can be viewed on the Nemeth Law website and YouTube channel.

About Nemeth Law, P.C.

Nemeth Law specializes in arbitration, mediation, workplace investigations, employment litigation, traditional labor law and management consultation/training for private and public sector employers. It is the largest woman-owned law firm in Michigan to exclusively represent management in the prevention, resolution and litigation of labor and employment disputes.

PROFESSIONALS

Terry W. Bonnette

Patricia Nemeth