Detroit, Michigan
December 22, 2015

PROFESSIONALS
Deborah Brouwer

Deborah Brouwer, a partner at Detroit-based management labor and employment law firm Nemeth Law, P.C., has been elected Chair of the Board of Directors of Assured Family Services (AFS), formerly known as the Juvenile Assessment Center.

AFS is a Wayne County-based mental health organization providing assessment, counseling, drug screening and psychological services to youth and their families, in (but not limited to) the juvenile justice system and Detroit schools. Brouwer has served as a board member for AFS since 2011.

Assured Family Services was founded in 1993 as a collaborative of child welfare and juvenile justice agencies focused on better services and better continuity of care for Michigan's children and families under court jurisdiction. Learn more about the history and the goals of AFS here.
