NEMETH LAW PARTNER NAMED PRESIDENT OF MICHIGAN DEFENSE TRIAL COUNSEL BOARD

Detroit, Michigan
July 2, 2021

PROFESSIONALS
Deborah Brouwer

Deborah Brouwer, co-managing partner of Detroit-based management side labor and employment law firm Nemeth Law, P.C., has been named president of the Michigan Defense Trial Counsel (MDTC) board of directors for 2021-2022. MDTC is an association of the leading lawyers in the State of Michigan dedicated to representing individuals and corporations in civil litigation. Immediately prior to being named MDTC board president, Brouwer served as board vice president and, prior to that, as treasurer. Her one-year term as president began on July 1.

Brouwer's labor and employment practice includes the defense of lawsuits against employers involving claims of race, age, religion, national origin, gender and disability discrimination, and harassment and retaliation, as well as FLSA, FMLA and non-competition suits. She also provides employer training and conducts discrimination and harassment investigations on behalf of employers. Brouwer has extensive experience appearing before administrative agencies, including the EEOC, MDCR, MIOSHA, OSHA and the NLRB, and also appears frequently before the Michigan Court of Appeals and the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals.

In addition to MDTC, Brouwer is a Member, State Bar of Michigan Appellate Section and Labor and Employment Law Section; Member, American Bar Association, Litigation Section; Member, DRI; Chair of the Board of Directors of Assured Family Services; and Chair, Board of Trustees, Luella Hannan Memorial Foundation. She holds a Juris Doctor from the Wayne State University School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts degree and Master of Arts degree, both from the University of Michigan.

Brouwer has received many honors in the legal field, including multiple Michigan Super Lawyer listings, Best Lawyers in America 2021, and Crain's Detroit Business Notable Women in Law 2019. She was named a 2020 Go-To Lawyer in Business Law and a 2018 Woman in the Law honoree by the legal trade publication, Michigan Lawyers Weekly.
