Founding partner again named among Top 25 Women Business Michigan Super Lawyers and Top 50 Women Michigan Super Lawyers

Detroit-based management side labor and employment law firm Nemeth Law, P.C., announces three firm partners have been named to the 2018 Michigan Super Lawyers' list.

Founding partner Patricia Nemeth was listed in the area of employment litigation defense and was again included among the Top 25 Women Business Michigan Super Lawyers and Top 50 Women Michigan Super Lawyers, a listing of women lawyers who ranked top of the list in the 2018 Michigan Super Lawyers nomination, research and blue ribbon review process.

Nemeth founded Nemeth Law as a solo practitioner in 1992. The firm is now the largest woman-owned law firm in Michigan to exclusively represent management in the prevention, resolution and litigation of labor and employment disputes.

Nemeth is an arbitrator and a certified mediator for all types of civil litigation, including employment. Her areas of legal expertise include all aspects of traditional labor and employment litigation law, including complex employment investigations and analyses, discrimination/harassment, age, disability, sex, race, whistleblowers, wrongful discharge, union organizing activities and union issues, and multi-party lawsuits.

Joining Patricia Nemeth on the Super Lawyers List again this year is Nemeth Law partner Anne Widlak, who was named a Michigan Super Lawyer in employment and labor, and partner Susan D. Koval, who was named a Michigan Super Lawyer in employment litigation defense.

"Nemeth Law is honored to have our attorneys included for multiple years on the Michigan Super Lawyers' list. We thank our peers for their acknowledgement of our specialized skills in management-side labor and employment matters," said Nemeth.
