

FIRM NEWS

NEMETH LAW'S MICHIGAN EMPLOYMENT LAW REFERENCE GUIDE IS NOW AVAILABLE THROUGH LEXOLOGY

October 21, 2021

PROFESSIONALS

Deborah Brouwer

Nemeth Law, P.C., is pleased to serve as Lexology's legal writing source for labor and employment laws that guide Michigan employers. Lexology is a global provider of legal content and widely respected as the leader in sharing legal information, analysis and insights through its many platforms.

Lexology's Employment: North America has just been released. The quick reference guide enables side-by-side comparison of key considerations, emerging issues and reform proposals for each state, and analyzes and interprets laws surrounding the employment relationship, hiring, wage and hour laws, discrimination, harassment and family leave, privacy in the workplace, trade secrets and restrictive covenants, labor relations, and discipline and termination procedures.

The latest updates from Lexology's guide on Michigan employment laws can be found here and include not only a listing of current laws, but emerging employment issues that you will want to know and understand. A nod to co-managing partner Deborah Brouwer and associate attorney Angelo Berlesi for taking the lead on this Lexology report. All of our attorneys are available to serve you as you run your business while remaining compliant with Michigan's dynamic employment law landscape.

About Nemeth Law, P.C.

Nemeth Law specializes in employment litigation, traditional labor law, workplace investigations, and management consultation and training for private and public sector employers. The firm also provides arbitration and mediation services. It is the largest woman-owned law firm in Michigan to exclusively represent management in the prevention, resolution and litigation of labor and employment disputes.